2012–2013 Graduate Research Support Fellowship

The Oregon Humanities Center is pleased to offer Graduate Research Support Fellowships for University of Oregon doctoral students pursuing a degree in the humanities.

Graduate Research Support Fellowships provide:

- 1) up to $1,000 in dissertation support during the fellowship year. These funds can be used for travel to an appropriate conference, research library, or archive during the fellowship year, or they may be used to purchase materials needed for the completion of the dissertation;
- 2) an invitation to all Center Work-in-Progress talks during the year; and
- 3) when space is available, the use of a Humanities Center office for one term during the fellowship year.

Objectives

The purpose of the Graduate Research Support Fellowship Program is to stimulate humanities research (see definition below) and support graduate education by providing doctoral students with resources to assist with their doctoral research and the completion of their dissertations.

Eligibility Guidelines

1. Research projects must be humanistic, but applicants may be enrolled in any department, college, or school. The term “humanities” as used here includes literature; philosophy; history; religion; ethics; the history, theory, and criticism of the arts; and historical or interpretive aspects of the social and natural sciences and the professions. Applicants with questions about their eligibility are urged to contact the Humanities Center before applying.
2. Applicants must expect to be advanced to candidacy by the beginning of the fellowship term.
3. Applicants for this fellowship are not eligible to apply for the 2012-13 OHC Graduate Dissertation Fellowship.

Deadline

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2012 by 5 p.m. Award recipients will be notified on or before March 30, 2012.

Conditions

1. Upon receipt and acceptance of a Graduate Research Support Fellowship, applicant must sign a letter agreeing to adhere to all terms and conditions of the fellowship program.
2. A Graduate Research Support Fellow may hold a GTF appointment during the term of the fellowship.
3. At the conclusion of the fellowship year or before, the fellowship recipient must submit a brief report (1 page) summarizing the use of fellowship funds, and describing how the fellowship assisted the applicant in making progress towards the completion of his or her degree. This report must be submitted no later than June 30, 2013.
4. Fellowship recipients must acknowledge the Oregon Humanities Center in any work resulting from research conducted during the fellowship period.
5. The Humanities Center will provide up to $1,000 in reimbursement of expenses for books, photocopying, or other research materials, or for travel to an appropriate professional conference or research facility during the fellowship year.

All fellowship-related expenses must be approved in advance and be incurred and paid by June 30, 2013.

Application Instructions

The proposal should be written in language that is clear to readers outside the applicant's discipline. Proposals that exceed the specified length will not be considered.

Applications will be reviewed by members of the Humanities Center Faculty Advisory Board consisting of faculty from various fields.

Applications must include:

1. The official two-page application form (attached). Please note that the signatures of the dissertation advisor and the department head are required on the application form, and must be secured prior to submission.
2. On a separate sheet, a brief description of your research project (maximum 500 words or two double-spaced pages in 12 pt. font).
3. A Curriculum Vitae (two pages maximum) including:
  - a. the applicant's education and title of dissertation;
  - b. academic honors or awards received;
  - c. employment history.
4. A one-page statement from the student's dissertation advisor, explaining: why the particular student and project are worthy of support; what stage the student is in with regard to the dissertation writing process; and how this OHC research support fellowship will facilitate progress towards the completion of the degree. The statement from the dissertation advisor must be submitted directly to the Oregon Humanities Center by 5 p.m. on February 6, 2012.

Submitting Your Proposal

Staple or paper clip together the application form, description of your research project, and c.v. Submit the original application, together with six collated and stapled photocopies of the entire packet, to the Oregon Humanities Center. You should have a total of seven packets.

(In accordance with University paper use policies, please make double-sided copies whenever possible.)

Deadline

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2011 by 5 p.m. to the Humanities Center, 154 PLC.

Questions? Please see Fellowship FAQs at ohc.uoregon.edu. For additional information, contact Julia Heydon, Associate Director, at jheydon@uoregon.edu or 346-1001.

Attention

Students Receiving Financial Aid: Federal regulations require students to notify the Financial Aid Office as soon as they know that they will receive any educational resources so that necessary revisions to their financial aid package can be made. Such resources include a GTF position, fellowship, scholarship, or any other type of monetary award. Because receiving additional financial resources may reduce your financial aid award, you should contact the Financial Aid Office prior to applying for support.
