2018–19 VP for Research and Innovation Completion Award

VPRI Completion Award

In AY 2018–19, the Vice President for Research and Innovation will continue to fund a number of Completion Awards as part of the OHC Research Fellowship program. In contrast with other fellowships, VPRI Completion Awards are designed specifically to provide faculty with time to finish the final stages of a project intended for publication. We strongly encourage applications from faculty engaged in projects that could be ready for publication if they had a term free from teaching (i.e., a single course buy-out during the research term). Applicants will be asked to demonstrate that they plan to complete a manuscript (e.g. an article, book chapter, book, or edited volume) and submit it for publication at the end of or immediately following their fellowship term.

Like all OHC research fellows, faculty who are awarded a VPRI Completion Award will be asked to report on their accomplishments following the fellowship term.

Application Process

The VPRI Completion Award is awarded annually on a competitive basis as part of the Oregon Humanities Center Faculty Research Fellowship application process.

Faculty members wishing to be considered for this award must:

- complete the VPRI Completion Award Proposal Statement (see reverse)
- attach the Proposal Statement to the Oregon Humanities Center Faculty Research Fellowship application. Your packets should be put together in this order:

___ Research Fellowship cover sheet

___ VPRI Proposal Statement

___ abstract

___ narrative proposal

___ curriculum vitae

The VPRI Completion Award applications will be reviewed together with all other faculty research proposals by a panel of UO faculty members from a variety of disciplines who serve on the Oregon Humanities Center Advisory Board. Applicants will be notified by email by January 8, 2018.
